FACULTY.

The Medical and Chirurgical Faculty met at Annapolis, agreeably to law, on the first Monday in June, 1799 ; and after having elected a President, Secretary, Treasurer, and a Board of Examiners, a Committee was appointed to frame bye-laws and regulations for the government of the institution. On the succeeding day they reported as follows....

I. THE faculty shall convene on the first Monday in June, in the year of our Lord 1801, and every second year thereafter.

II. The president, secretary, treasurer and board of examiners, designated by the law, shall be elected by ballot every second year of the meeting of the faculty or society.

III. The president shall preside at all general meetings, to preserve order and decorum, and may fine any member acting disorderly, in a sum not exceeding ten dollars ; or may, with the consent of two-thirds of the members present, expel for any heinous offence or misdemeanor.

IV. The secretary shall attend each meeting of the faculty, call over the names of the members, and take down the minutes which shall be read at the next meeting ; and when corrected, copy them into a book kept for that purpose. He shall likewise read all letters and papers that may be communicated to the faculty, and transcribe into a proper book, such of them as the faculty may think worthy of being preserved. He shall also give notice to new members of their election, write and answer letters in behalf of the faculty, and in general manage all matters of correspondence.

V. The treasurer is empowered to collect all money arising from licenses given by the board of examiners, and to receive all donations that may be made to the faculty, and shall pay the same agreeably to their order, certified by the president. He shall take charge of, and preserve for the use of the faculty, all property of whatsoever kind it may be, which the faculty may become possessed of, and keep an exact list of the same, with the names of the respective donors, in a book provided for that purpose, which book shall be laid before the faculty as often as called for. He shall keep a regular account of all the money received and paid for the use of the faculty, and render to them a statement of the stock in his hands, and the disbursements made by their order, and shall deliver up to his successor the books and all papers belonging to the faculty, together with the balance of cash in his hands : and for the faithful discharge of his trust, shall before he enters into office, give bond and security in such sum as the president may require, for the use of the faculty.

VI. The board of examiners for each shore shall, and they are hereby directed to meet annually. The board for the western shore on the second Monday in April, for the purpose of examining and granting licenses to applicants, and any two members of the said boards respectively are authorised to call a special meeting of the board whenever they may think it expedient.

VII. And be it ordained, That in case of the death, resignation, or removal out of the state, or other disqualification of the president, secretary or treasurer, that the board of examiners for the two shores, or a majority of them, shall be authorized to nominate and appoint a person to fill either of the said offices, until the next general meeting of the faculty; and in order that a joint meeting of the examiners of both shores may take place, it is hereby declared that the examiner first named on the western shore, shall have the power, and is hereby directed to advertise the time and place of holding such meeting for the above purpose, giving at least six weeks notice.

VIII. And in case any vacancy or vacancies should happen in the board of examiners during the time for which they are appointed, either by death, resignation, removal out of the state, refusal to act or non-attendance at two successive meetings, (without an excuse satisfactory to a majority of the board) it shall be the duty of the board on either shore, respectively to elect by ballot some other person or persons to fill such vacancy or vacancies who shall continue in office until the next general meeting of the faculty.

IX. And be it ordained and ordered by the Medical and Chirurgical Faculty of the State of Maryland, That every person obtaining a license from the board of examiners to commence the practice of medicine and surgery, shall pay unto the treasurer the sum of ten dollars.

X. It shall be the duty of each candidate so obtaining a license, and having paid his money into the hands of the treasurer, to carry or transmit the said license to the president and secretary of the faculty, that it may be countersigned as the law directs.

XI. The president of the faculty shall, before the first meeting of the board of examiners of the respective shores, furnish them with a form of license or certificate, which shall be the same on both shores, the manner and form of such license or certificate to be devised by the president, and dated with the day of the month, the year of our Lord, of American independence, and of the institution of the Medical and Chirurgical Faculty of Maryland.

XII. The president of the Medical and Chirurgical Faculty or Society, shall be and is hereby empowered to call a general meeting of the faculty at any time intervening the periods fixed for the established meetings whenever he may judge that the interests of the faculty may require such a special meeting, of which two months notice shall be given by advertisement in some of the most public newspapers of the two shores.

XIII. At each meeting of the Medical and Chirurgical Faculty, any number not less than fifteen, shall constitute a quorum, and such number may adjourn from day to day, until a sufficient number to form a quorum shall have convened.

XIV. No candidate shall be admitted a member of the Medical and Chirurgical Faculty unless elected by a majority of two-thirds of the members present ; and all elections for members to be admitted, or for officers, shall be by ballot.

At the covention of the Medical and Chirurgical Faculty in June 1801, a committee was appointed to consider of and report on the third section of the medical law ; who having duly considered the same, reported “ that the said third section gives to the faculty a power of electing into their body such medical gentlemen as they may think qualified to become members, at their first meeting, of the faculty ; and that there is no prohibition in this or any other section of the law to the exercise of this power at any subsequent meeting : neither is such a prohibition implied in the said section ; for the implication would greatly affect the election of the president and the other officers, at any other than the first meeting. That the committee are of opinion, that should there be a suspicion of any implied restriction to their election at the first meeting, the suspicion would be done away by the last section of the law, which impowers the faculty to make any regulations they may think requisite which do not militate against the constitution, nor any law of this state, against the constitution, or any law of the United States, as well as by the necessity of leaving successors to the present members of the faculty.

At the meeting of the Medical and Chirurgical Faculty in 1802, it was resolved that the following be a bye-law of the faculty :—

Resolved, That all applicants to practice physic or surgery in this state, shall make known their intention at least three weeks before the annual meeting, to two of the examiners of each shore respectively, and that it shall be the duty of the secretary to publish the law for two months, twice a week, in two of the newspapers on the Western, and one on the Eastern shore, previous to the three weeks before the annual meeting of the examiners—he shall also be enjoined to publish the names of the board of examiners.*

It was also resolved at the same convention, that there be two censors appointed for each county in this state—Four for the city of Baltimore ; two for the city of Annapolis ; two for Frederick-town, and one for Hager's-town ; whose duty it shall be to see that the medical and chirurgical law be not infringed by unlicensed practitioners ; that the penalties of the law be inflicted, and to execute such other duties as may be required of them by the bye-laws.

At the convention of 1805 it was unanimously agreed, that the secretary be directed to insert the resolution respecting the censors among the bye-laws—That the present censors be continued for two years, together with six additional censors for the city of Baltimore. The faculty having balloted for six additional censors for the city of Baltimore, it appeared that Doctors James Smyth, James Smith, Stephen Chatard, John Owen, Fred. Toelle, and Joseph Allender, were duly elected—Dr. Morgan Brown was chosen to fill the vacancy in Kent county, occasioned by the death of the much-regretted Dr. Edmond Worrell.

At this meeting a resolution was made, constituting an Executive, Medical and Chirurgical Committee of fifteen members, for the Western, and seven for the Eastern shore, exclusive of the President and Secretary, who shall be members ex officio.—The duty of this committee was declared to be to meet from time to time (in their own adjournment) to receive any medical communications during the recess of the faculty, and to report the same at the stated meetings. The faculty balloted for the members of this committee, when it appeared that, for the Western shore, the following gentlemen were elected:—

Dr. J. Archer, sen. Daniel Moores, T. S. Shaaff, R. R. Ghieslin, J. C. White, A. Alexander, C. A. Warfield, John Owen, G. Brown, Colin Mackenzie, John Tyler, John Crawford, John Coulter, J. Archer, jun.

For the Eastern Shore:—

Dr. J. M. Anderson, jun. S. T. Johnson, Ennalls Martin, T. Thomas, P. E. Noel, Morgan Brown, and John Mace.

Resolved, That the Board of Examiners be authorised to grant special licenses to dentists and oculists to practice in their respective branches, subjecting them to an examination only on the branches they possess; and that such licentiates shall pay ten dollars for each license so obtained; provided it shall be the opinion of the attorney general that the law authorises the examiners to grant such licenses.

The secretary having submitted the preceding resolution to the then attorney general, he gave it as his opinion that the law authorised the board to act according to the spirit of the resolution.

On motion, Resolved, That the members of the Medical and Chirurgical Faculty will use their utmost endeavors to discourage the use, and, as far as may be in their power, prevent the sale of patent and quack medicine.

It was then Resolved, That it be the province of the Executive Medical and Chirurgical Committee to take into consideration the evils resulting from the use of patent and quack medicine, & to report to the faculty such measures as they may deem most expedient for preventing them.

On motion, Resolved, That a committee of three be appointed to petition the general assembly of this state, for an act to give preference to the claims of physicians and surgeons against the estates of deceased persons and insolvent debtors.

At the succeeding meeting of the faculty, the committee reported, "That considering the prevailing disposition of the legislature, they deemed it expedient to prefer the petition."

Be it unanimously resolved by the Medical and Chirurgical Faculty of Maryland, in convention assembled, That the evidence of the great utility of the genuine Vaccine inoculation is to them full and conclusive, and that they recommend it to their fellow-citizens to interest themselves in its propogation.

On motion, Resolved, That a member be appointed to deliver an oration at the next meeting of the faculty; and that it be henceforth a law of the faculty, that an oration be delivered at each opening of the convention of the Medical and Chirurgical Faculty.

At the convention of 1803, this resolution was amended by an unanimous Resolve, That two, instead of one biennial oration be delivered at the opening of the convention in future.

At the convention of 1805, a resolution passed requesting the treasurer to invest the money of the faculty, and such money as may hereafter come into his hands in such stock as may be deemed by him most productive; and that such investure be made in the name of the president, for the use of the Medical and Chirurgical Faculty of Maryland.
